Indiana’s only conference designed specifically for out-of-school time program providers!

DATE
APRIL 13 & 14, 2015

INDIANA SUMMIT
ON OUT-OF-SCHOOL LEARNING

LOCATION
JW MARRIOTT INDIANAPOLIS
Welcome to Indianapolis for the 2015 Summit on Out-of-School Learning!

The 2015 conference theme is I AM Indiana Afterschool. Afterschool is all of us — whether we directly reach youth, provide support, or have our own kids in programs. The Summit is a place to learn, get inspired, and connect with our state’s best and brightest.

Today we welcome more than 700 participants from youth programs, schools, universities, business, community and faith-based organizations, childcare centers, museums, government, funders and more.

Exciting things are happening over the next two days. We have put together expert keynote speakers, special events, and more than 50 workshops on top-notch best practices in out-of-school time.

This year’s Summit explores the resources, talent, and collaborative spirit we have in Indiana to help all youth reach their full potential.

We wish you a wonderful time and Summit experience.

Best Regards,
Debbie Zipes
President, Indiana Afterschool Network

Indiana Afterschool Network is proud to present this award in recognition of Lilly Endowment’s long-standing investment and commitment to out-of-school learning in Indiana. Lilly Endowment has transformed the learning space in our state — supporting afterschool and summer programs and the system-building infrastructure that gives thousands of youth access to life-changing experiences every year. Our conference theme is I AM Indiana Afterschool — and Indiana would not be the same without Lilly Endowment.
Welcome!

On behalf of the City of Indianapolis, it is my pleasure to welcome you to the 2015 Indiana Summit on Out-of-School Learning sponsored by the Indiana Afterschool Network and the Indiana Department of Education. Afterschool and summer programs are a vital part of our children’s education and this conference will offer youth workers many opportunities to learn about new curricula, funding opportunities, communications, strategic planning, and health and safety issues.

While you are here, I hope you have time to enjoy the many top attractions Indianapolis has to offer. Your hotel, the JW Marriot, offers connectivity to White River State Park as well as many downtown restaurants and shopping. Places of interest include: the Children’s Museum of Indianapolis, Indianapolis Zoo and White River Gardens, Eiteljorg Museum of American Indians the and Western Art, Madame Walker Theatre, NCAA Hall of Champions, Indianapolis Cultural Trail, and the Indianapolis Museum of Art.

I wish you the best for a successful and enjoyable conference in Indianapolis. Please visit again soon.

Best regards,

Gregory A. Ballard
Mayor, City of Indianapolis
Greetings,

On behalf of the Indiana Department of Education, it is my pleasure to welcome afterschool and summer learning program leaders and education partners to the 2015 Indiana Summit on Out-of-School Learning!

Together your organizations provide Indiana’s children and youth with opportunities to continue learning, exploring, and growing in the hours beyond the school day. It is exciting to bring you together to share best practices, connect, and learn from each other.

The mission at the Department of Education is to build an education system of equity and high quality. To do this, we have to focus our efforts on school improvement and community engagement. No matter the community, we can always improve our schools and the programming we provide for our children outside of the classroom.

As I travel across Indiana, I see some absolutely wonderful partnerships among schools, families and communities focused in many areas such as Early Learning and Pre-K programs, career development, service learning, tutoring and mentoring, and social services. And these successes are a result of community, families and schools coming together and utilizing public and private financial and talent resources to improve our students’ learning environments. However, there is great disparity in Indiana with the level of involvement among community, families and schools — all too often, depending on the economic vitality of the community itself. We must continue to work together and focus on our students’ needs to improve educational outcomes and sustain important family, school and community partnerships.

I am so appreciative of all the wonderful work you do every day. On behalf of the Indiana Department of Education, I thank you for your commitment, vision, and support preparing Indiana’s youth for a bright future.

Sincerely,
Glenda Ritz
State Superintendent of Public Instruction

SCOTT ELLIOT
Scott Elliott is the founding Bureau Chief of Chalkbeat Indiana, an award-winning journalist who has covered education for 18 years. Previously, Scott was the Education Reform Reporter at the Indianapolis Star. He is a pioneer in reporting on school choice and in education blogging. As the education reporter at the Dayton Daily News in Ohio from 1999 to 2008, he covered an explosion of charter schools in Dayton that made the city the nation’s No. 1 charter school marketplace from 2000 to 2005. His blog, Get on the Bus, was the third mainstream media education blog when it launched in 2005. He is a former Knight-Wallace journalism fellow at the University of Michigan.

EARL MARTIN PHALEN
While at Harvard Law School, Phalen founded BELL, an afterschool program that he grew from serving 20 students to educating 15,000 children annually; and from $12k to $27.5M in annual revenues. Believing deeply in the importance of summer learning, Phalen founded Summer Advantage USA. The program is one of only two scientifically-proven models in the country.

Because of Summer Advantage’s impact, Phalen’s team was invited to expand their summer program into a school. The schools, the George and Veronica Phalen Leadership Academies, were awarded an unprecedented 10 charters, which will enable them to serve 10,000 students annually.

Join us in the fun!

LET’S PUT THE JOY BACK IN READING
Barbara Horvath (Center on Education and Lifelong Learning — IU Bloomington)
Grade Level(s): K-5
Room: Grand Ballroom 2
Standards: Human Relationships, Programming and Activities, College and Career Readiness, Summer Learning
Together we will explore ways to invite students into rich literacy experiences. It’s an enriching experience to determine what children wonder about, what delights them, and how they best show what they know. This session will provide demonstrations and opportunities for practice of fiction and informational text strategies for students to deepen their literacy knowledge. Opportunities to work with others, to laugh out loud, to create, and to consider the importance of joyous reading will be embedded throughout.
MOTIVATING AND LEADING MULTI-GENERATIONAL TEAMS
Erika Petrelli (The Leadership Program)
Grade Level(s): Appropriate for Any Age
Room: Grand Ballroom 3
Standards: Administration
As a team leader, how do you motivate your part-time high school youth worker who just started last week while also motivating your full-time seasoned worker who has been with your organization for twenty years? How do you juggle the needs of the working mom, the full-time student, the caretaker, the grandparent, the millennial? Come to this workshop to explore strategies for motivating every person on your team, whether they are 16 or 65!

BREAKOUT SESSIONS
ROUND TWO
11:15 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. (choose one to attend)

A-CUBED (ACADEMIC ACTIVITIES IN AFTERSCHOOL)
Aimee Scott (John H. Boner Community Center)
Grade Level(s): K-12
Room: Grand Ballroom 4
Standards: Human Relationships, Programming and Activities, Healthy Eating and Physical Activity, STEM, Summer Learning
Learn how to create and implement age appropriate activities that connect to the school day. Discover how to be flexible in an out-of-school setting and how to create lessons that fit your unique environment and age group. Build your own lesson plans in this workshop to bring back to your program.

BOOST YOUR CULTURAL INTELLIGENCE
Charlotte Westerhaus-Renfrow (Indiana University Purdue University Indianapolis, IUPUI)
Grade Level(s): Appropriate for Any Age
Room: 312
Standards: Human Relationships
If you are like most people, working with students, parents, and staff from other cultures and countries can be as exciting and challenging as walking a tight rope. This workshop will provide an overview of Cultural Intelligence and the CQ model. The session will also include activities that draw awareness to self and others with special emphasis on cultural similarities and differences, and guidelines for creating CQ development plans. Learn how to overcome cultural challenges and succeed by boosting your Cultural Intelligence!

CLEVER CRAZES FOR KIDS (CCK)
Phoebe Pardo (Clever Crazes for Kids)
Grade Level(s): K-8
Room: 303
Standards: Safety, Health and Nutrition, Healthy Eating and Physical Activity, STEM, Summer Learning
Join us in learning about CleverCrazes.com (CCK) a dynamic website that engages kids in learning about themselves and their world through animation, games, quizzes and prizes. We will explore fun academic games and activities and introduce art education as a way of developing critical thinking. CCK provides K-8 activities focused on STE(A)M, wellness, academics, careers, problem solving, critical thinking, self-esteem, and the “Step It Up and Kickstart Your Brain” physical fitness challenge. Session attendees will receive a CCK backpack.

ENGAGING URBAN FAMILIES: LET’S GET R.E.A.L.
Leslie Wesley (South Bend Community School Corporation), Wilisha Scaife (Ball State University)
Grade Level(s): Appropriate for Any Age
Room: Grand Ballroom 1
Standards: Human Relationships
Truly engaged partnership with families has the POWER to transform lives (child, family and educator). It’s time to get REAL (an acronym that will share practical steps to authentic engagement)! In this thought provoking session, participants will be encouraged to critique their perspective on Family Engagement, challenge their philosophy, create a new passion, change their practices and then nurture a change in the culture of Family Engagement in their programs. Together, we will learn what it means to get REAL!

ESSENTIAL ELEMENTS OF AN AFTERSCHOOL STEM PROGRAM
Ryan Steuer, I-STEM Resource Network, WisdomTools, and Magnify Learning
Grade Level(s): Appropriate for Any Age
Room: Grand Ballroom 2
Standards: STEM
Strengthen your existing STEM programs or start a new one! Learn the 6 steps of project-based learning and how to engage youth in addressing a unique question, problem, or challenge. Get youth of all ages excited about learning and building 21st century skills. Learn about inquiry, voice and choice, and note booking. Through hands-on activities, participants will bring back easy-to-implement ideas. This session will demonstrate how programs can align with the Indiana Afterschool STEM Standards and the Harvard Dimensions of Success assessment tool.
EVERYTHING YOU DIDN’T KNOW YOU WANTED TO KNOW ABOUT EVALUATION
Sam Crecelius (Diehl Evaluation and Consulting)
Grade Level(s): Appropriate for Any Age
Room: 301
Standards: Administration
In this session, we will break down some of the uncertainty around evaluation and provide guidance for programs seeking to expand their self-evaluation or hire an evaluator. This session will provide a brief overview of the history and trends present in afterschool evaluation, with a special focus on the most common outcomes. Finally, self-evaluation opportunities and strategies for selecting an evaluator will be discussed.

HAPPY CAMPERS WANTED: DECREASING CHALLENGING BEHAVIORS
Jamie Johnson, Indiana Afterschool Network
Grade Level(s): Appropriate for Any Age
Room: 203-204
Standards: Human Relationships, Programming and Activities
Unstructured environments like out-of-school can be places where imaginations thrive. They can also be places that test the flexibility of our teams and their patience. Who wants an unhappy camper? This interactive session will focus on strengths-based prevention and intervention strategies that afterschool providers can use to increase youth participation and decrease escalation. Participants will define, share and explore fun strategies that can be implemented immediately.

PANEL: A DISCUSSION OF STATE FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES
Facilitator: Dan Diehl, Diehl Consulting and Evaluation
Panelists: Melanie Brizzi (Director, Indiana Office of Early Childhood and Out-of-School Learning), Charlie Geier (Director of Early Learning and Intervention, Indiana Department of Education), Devonne Richburg (21st Century Community Learning Centers, Indiana Department of Education), Tina Skinner (Summer Food Program, Indiana Department of Education), Jeremy Eltz (Science Specialist, Indiana Department of Education)
Room: 205
Join us to learn about state and federal funding and resources that can support afterschool and summer programming. Find out about eligibility and how to access funding from the Indiana Department of Education and Indiana Office of Early Childhood and Out-of-School Learning (formerly Bureau of Child Care). These include 21st century community learning centers, summer food programs, Title 1, migrant education, English as second language, school-age child care grants and child care vouchers.

RAISING SELF-ESTEEM THROUGH CREATIVE FITNESS AND NUTRITIONAL ACTIVITIES
Tammy Brant (Skillastics)
Grade Level(s): K-8
Room: Grand Ballroom 3
Active and healthy children have a lower risk of behavior problems, an increase in achievement academically, and higher self-esteem. This session provides participants with innovative ideas that demonstrate how to get everyone up and moving while raising self-esteem. These activities are non-competitive, appropriate for all ages and abilities and are a whole lot of fun! They can even be taught in a limited amount of space — Come prepared to move, laugh, and have fun!
BREAKOUT SESSIONS
ROUND TWO
11:15 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. (choose one to attend)

SPARK: SUMMER PROGRAM OF AWESOME READING FOR KIDS
Amanda Jones-Layman (Wabash County YMCA)
Grade Level(s): K-5
Room: 302
Standards: Human Relationships, Programming and Activities, Administration, Healthy Eating and Physical Activity, Summer Learning.

Come learn how you can engage families in reading this summer... everybody's doing it! In the summer of 2012, the Wabash County YMCA partnered with local school districts to become one of the first pilots of a YMCA of the USA program designed to prevent summer learning loss for first and second graders. Family engagement is key to our program’s success and has helped us exceed the national average for academic, attendance, and youth development outcomes each year since.

STATE OF INDIANA’S YOUTH
Emily Krauser (Indiana Youth Institute)
Grade Level(s): Appropriate for Any Age
Room: 308

Learn about youth trends in our state and how to use the 2015 KIDS COUNT® in Indiana Data book for grant writing, program planning, and engaging and caring for all youth in Indiana. How many Indiana children live in poverty? What percentage of youth use drugs or alcohol? How do children spend their time when they’re not in school? This session will answer these questions, plus provide other important data about the well being of Indiana children.
SESSION I ATTENDED:

What do I want to learn? What can others learn from me?
KEYNOTE: A JOURNEY. A MENTOR. A MISSION: TRANSFORMING STUDENTS INTO HEROES.

Introduction by Purdue University.

With examples from his highly-rated book, Pure Genius: Building a Culture of Innovation, Don will share his insights and examples of great, innovative student work and leadership. This high-energy presentation will challenge you to be that mentor to our heroes, as they cross over from being “consumers” of knowledge to “producers” of content.

Remember when you were young...who helped you define your purpose and held your hand on the journey?

Today’s keynote will challenge you to consider what role you play in their lives and how you can use your time, talents and resources to transform them.

By looking at archetypes of heroes past and unlocking the potential in today’s society, the audience will be called to action by investigating what is missing in our students’ lives. Don will also call on our mentors to help with the “Opportunities Are Everywhere” mentality, as he will inspire you to actively seek solutions to solvable problems.

Closing Remarks by: State Farm

ACTIVITIES THAT REACH AND TEACH
Betsy Bontrager (uLEAD, Inc.), Ritch Hochstetler (uLEAD, Inc.)
Grade Level(s): 6-12
Room: Grand Ballroom 1
Standards: Human Relationships, Programming and Activities
uLEAD opens their student engagement toolkit through an interactive session that will leave you wanting more and remembering what you learned! You will learn new tools for engaging students that are fun, effective, and unforgettable. Empower yourself to understand the brains of those you are working with and offer them a way to fully engage in their own learning. Learning does not have to lack fun, and fun does not have to lack learning.

CONNECTING STANDARDS THROUGH THE CREATIVE ARTS
Michael Bontempo (The Granville Studio of Visual Arts (GSVA))
Grade Level(s): Appropriate for Any Age
Room: 203-204
Standards: Human Relationships, Indoor & Outdoor Environments, Programming and Activities, Safety, Health and Nutrition, Administration, College and Career Readiness, Healthy Eating and Physical Activity, STEM, Summer Learning
Integrating the Creative Arts can play a critical role in building literacy, math, science, and 21st century skills. Join us to experience Orange Couch and learn how your program can shift from just fun ‘arts & crafts’ to experiential learning more clearly aligned with academic growth and college and career readiness. As part of this learning experience, all participants will create their own artwork to take home! (NO ART EXPERIENCE NECESSARY!)

ENGAGING YOUTH IN THE BIG PICTURE OF FUNDRAISING
Jill Gordon, Youth Philanthropy Initiative of Indiana
Grade Level(s): K-12
Room: 302
Standards: Human Relationships, Programming and Activities, College and Career Readiness
Are you engaging youth in your organization’s fundraising efforts? This session will explore the benefits of youth as fundraisers and provide tips on how to help youth understand the full spectrum of raising funds for their programs and communities. Participants will explore the various stages involved with a total fundraising effort; beginning with a community fundraising event and progressing to a fund development plan. Activities include the fundraising steps of planning, budgeting, and marketing as well as helping youth to developing an elevator speech to approach community donors and leaders.

FAMILY ENGAGEMENT: BEYOND A PARENT SURVEY
Jackie Garvey, JRG Consulting, LLC.
Grade Level(s): Appropriate for Any Age
Room: 205
Standards: Human Relationships
There are many best practices and frameworks for engaging families. The foundation to all of these is relationships, relationships, relationships. This session will explore elements of building and maintaining meaningful relationships with parents and families. Learn about the “Trust Triangle” and other helpful strategies to get to know your parents and guardians better. Discuss and share your own successful strategies for creating meaningful effective relationships with families that lead to student success.
FIVE DYSFUNCTIONS OF A TEAM
John McShane, Peace Learning Center

Grade Level(s): Appropriate for Any Age
Room: Grand Ballroom 3
Standards: Human Relationships, Administration

“Great teams do not hold back with one another. They admit their mistakes, their weaknesses, and their concerns without fear of reprisal.” —Patrick Lencioni.

Learn and practice the same lessons based on New York Times bestseller. Participants will discover how to help their teams to take their first steps toward greater cohesiveness and productivity.

INDIANAPOLIS ZOO WORKSHOP AND TOUR

Indianapolis Zoo—Grounds and Hix Education Center
Conservation Education Workshop, Rotation 1: Lead by Zoo Educators
Learn about the Zoo’s mission of conservation in communities around the world and how to incorporate real world conservation into your afterschool programs. In this session you will discover how local conservation projects are the perfect example of real-world problem solving.

Behind the Scenes Tour, Rotation 2: Lead by Zoo Educators
Learn more about the conservation of Africa’s elephants and tour behind the scenes in the Zoo’s elephant barn. You will have an opportunity to talk with Zoo staff and hear about how the Zoo is involved with elephant conservation. Discover how you can involve your afterschool programs in saving Africa’s elephants.

Project-Based and Service Learning, Rotation 3: Lead by Jeff Spencer and Ryan Steuer
Project-Based Learning allows students to connect their learning to real-world problem solving. Service-learning teaches empathy in young people and allows them to make a change in the world. In this session, learn how to create meaningful learning for students by using these two methods in your afterschool program.

INDIANA ACADEMY FOR OUT-OF-SCHOOL LEARNING
Jamie Johnson (Indiana Afterschool Network),
Steve Stookey (CypherWorx, Inc.)
Room: 308

How can out-of-school learning professionals juggle an overwhelming number of unfamiliar issues, such as behavior management, safety, curriculum, cultural diversity, programming, parent interaction and administration? The answer is simple: Professional Development. This session will highlight the new online OST Academy that was created in partnership with the National Afterschool Association and Child Care Aware. Participants will see a demonstration and learn about the 36-course series with in-depth curriculum content, interactivity, and certificates aligned with the IN Afterschool Standards and Specialty Standards.

INTERACTING WITH THE BRAIN IN MIND
Lori Desautels (Marian University)
Grade Level(s): Appropriate for Any Age
Room: 312
Standards: Human Relationships, Programming and Activities, Safety, Health and Nutrition, College and Career Readiness, STEM, Summer Learning

The mind, body and heart work collectively—every experience all of us encounter changes our brains. Implementing the strategies and principles from the research of educational neuroscience youth workers will address behavior engagement, learning with purpose, and what happens in the brain when stress and negative emotion are experienced! How do we engage and provide consequences so that our children leave an experience feeling empowered and curious? Come explore behaviors and communication with the brain in mind.
STUDENT INNOVATION UNLEASHED
Keynote Speaker Don Wettrick
Room: Grand Ballroom 4
This breakout session will feature a “blueprint” of the innovation class, as well as a chance to hear from the students themselves. You will be able to see how they crossed over from students that learn content to innovators that produce results. Time will also be given for an open Q&A session to really understand what makes these students strive for success.

LEVERAGING PARTNERSHIPS FOR COLLEGE SUCCESS
Khala E. Granville and Larry Gonzalez (Indiana University)
Grade Level(s): 6-12
Room: 303
Standards: Programming and Activities, College and Career Readiness, Summer Learning
College preparation doesn’t start in high school and it definitely doesn’t end at the close of the school day. In this session, learn why college and career planning should be a part of your afterschool or summer program and how to effectively work with colleges and universities. You will also get the scoop on new programming from Indiana University Bloomington that can help your students plan for higher education.

THE POWER TO REALLY MAKE A DIFFERENCE: RENEWING YOU
Janet Wakefield (The Journey), Skye Berger (Skye Berger Group, LLC), Connie Minich (Indiana Afterschool Network)
Grade Level(s): Appropriate for Any Age
Room: 301
Standards: Administration
How can you be a good model for young people if you aren’t a good model for yourself? Come experience some personal and professional refreshment to reconnect you to what’s meaningful and powerful in your work and life. Plan on identifying what brings life to your work and how to use that to overcome the challenges you face on a daily basis. Also plan on building connections with fellow youth workers and getting inspiration from who they are.
This workshop will be YOU focused, but don’t be surprised if we talk about the profession, the field and anything else that relates. This workshop will be highly participative. People with any kind of serious heart condition are encouraged to attend! Handouts are unlikely, but takeaways are guaranteed.

WATT THE FLUX—ENERGIZE YOUR STEM PROGRAM
Angelina Mendoza and Keith Hand
(Chicago Museum of Science and Industry)
Grade Level(s): K-8
Room: Grand Ballroom 2
Standards: Programming and Activities, STEM
Build your own water turbine, power a motor with a solar panel and warm up with your own homemade hand warmer—all through the power of energy transformations! In this high-energy workshop, participants will explore different types of energy and energy transformations in these hands-on activities for 3rd-5th grade students. Discover how Energy can be used as a lens in which youth develop a framework for developing a bigger picture across all fields of science and engineering.

ACADEMICS AND OST CREATE COLLEGE AND CAREER READY KIDS
Darlene Herbet (Development Studies Center)
Grade Level(s): K-5
Room: 303
Standards: College and Career Readiness
Out-of-school time is the right place to help K-5 kids become confident, engaged, and college and career ready. Starting with the end in mind is a perfect way to help kids and youth become successful. Join us to unpack the seven descriptors for college and career readiness and learn how to structure time, work together and make academics feel different than the school day.

CONNECTING STANDARDS THROUGH THE CREATIVE ARTS
Michael Bontempo (The Granville Studio of Visual Arts)
Grade Level(s): Appropriate for Any Age
Room: Grand Ballroom 1
Standards: Human Relationships, Indoor & Outdoor Environments, Programming and Activities, Safety, Health and Nutrition, Administration, College and Career Readiness, Healthy Eating and Physical Activity, STEM, Summer Learning
Integrating the Creative Arts can play a critical role in building literacy, math, science, and 21st century skills. Join us to experience Orange Couch and learn how your program can shift from just fun ‘arts & crafts’ to experiential learning more clearly aligned with academic growth and college and career readiness. As part of this learning experience, all participants will create their own artwork to take home! (NO ART EXPERIENCE NECESSARY!)

FAMILY ENGAGEMENT BEYOND A PARENT SURVEY
Jackie Garvey (JRG Consulting, LLC.)
Grade Level(s): Appropriate for Any Age
Room: 301
Standards: Human Relationships
There are many best practices and frameworks for engaging families. The foundation to all of these is relationships, relationships, relationships. This session will explore elements of building and maintaining meaningful relationships with parents and families. Learn about the "Trust Triangle" and other helpful strategies to get to know your parents and guardians better. Discuss and share your own successful strategies for creating meaningful effective relationships with families that lead to student success.

THE ELUSIVE SEARCH FOR QUALITY
Bri Gaston-Bell and Chelsie Sharp (Indiana Afterschool Network), Herb Higgin (Safe Harbor)
Room: 203-204
Standards: Human Relationships, Administration
Why is quality the latest and greatest thing that funders, educators and workforce want? Everyone talks about it. Everyone wants it. But not everyone knows how to get it. This session will highlight Indiana’s Out-of-School Learning Best Practice Quality Model that consists of: Standards, Assessment, and Professional Development. Participants will hear afterschool successes and learn the steps towards quality improvement for their programs and organizations.

LET’S TALK ABOUT SEX: AUTHENTIC CONVERSATIONS WITH YOUTH
Jessica Marquart and Leslie Montgomery (Sara & Albert Reuben Partners in Health Education)
Grade Level(s): K-12
Room: 303
Standards: Human Relationships, Programming and Activities, Safety, Health and Nutrition
Youth Development Professionals are in a position where they can listen, offer encouragement, give information, teach skills, guide decision-making and support behavior change for the youth they serve. With this in mind, they may have conversations with youth about sexuality that could help youth make healthy decisions. Participants will examine a definition of holistic sexuality and explore personal and professional values and how those values impact communicating with youth.

LEVERAGING BOARD LEADERSHIP
Willis Bright (Bright Visions)

Grade Level(s): Appropriate for Any Age
Room: 302
Standards: Administration

Learn how the board of directors of a not for profit organization can be an essential for creating and delivering effective services for children and youth in a community. Critical elements include understanding what roles the board and staff should play in agency administration, fundraising and program development. Why is the recruitment and orientation of board members critical to your future effectiveness? How can the board of directors be prepared to serve as an effective advocate for your organization? There will be time to raise questions, share lessons learned, and hear how others have leveraged their board’s time, talent and treasure.

PANEL: UNIVERSITIES SHARE HOW TO PREPARE YOUTH FOR COLLEGE
Presented by Independent Colleges of Indiana

Room: 205
Standards: College and Career Readiness

All youth need education beyond high school to succeed in today’s economy. What skills do they need to get into and succeed in college? Learn from a panel of Indiana’s universities and colleges on how afterschool and summer programs can prepare youth for the future. Find out what a first generation college student has to say about the supports that made a difference. Learn what college readiness resources and tools you can use in your program and how you can build relationships with colleges in your communities.

STAFF RETENTION AND ENGAGEMENT
Erika Petrelli (The Leadership Program)

Grade Level(s): Appropriate for Any Age
Room: Grand Ballroom 2
Standards: Administration

The field of youth work can be demanding and exhausting, resulting sometimes in a high turnover rate of staff. In this interactive workshop we will explore strategies for keeping your staff motivated and engaged in the work so that they are energized to keep coming back, year after year.

STEM: SCIGIRLS STYLE!
Sarah K. Carter (SciGirls/Twin Cities Public Television)

Grade Level(s): 6-8
Room: 308
Standards: Human Relationships, Programming and Activities, STEM

Join SciGirls in this hands-on, minds-on session! SciGirls has the bold goal of changing how millions of girls think about science, technology, engineering and math! Participants will learn about the SciGirls Seven strategies that are incorporated into STEM activities and encourage youth to think critically, educators to “keep their hands in their pockets”, and activities to be creative and personally relevant.

YOU WANT ME TO DO WHAT?!? PAIN-FREE WAYS TO INCORPORATE STEM ACTIVITIES
Jennifer Groh and Susan Bayley (Purdue Women in Engineering)

Grade Level(s): K-8
Room: Grand Ballroom 4
Standards: Programming and Activities, STEM, Summer Learning

Overcome anxieties about incorporating STEM into your program through creative and simple hands-on activities that can easily be paired with popular children’s books. Also learn about barriers that contribute to the low numbers of girls and underrepresented minority students pursuing STEM careers. We will explore how out-of-school time providers can encourage these students to consider STEM at a critical, young age.

BREAKOUT SESSIONS
ROUND FIVE
1:15 p.m. – 2:30 p.m. (choose one to attend)

AFFILIATE NETWORKS ARE S.U.P.E.R.
Jamie Johnson and Connie Minich
(Indiana Afterschool Network)
Closed session.
Room: 203-204

ENGAGING URBAN FAMILIES: LET’S GET R.E.A.L.
Leslie Wesley (South Bend Community School Corporation)
Wilisha Scaife (Ball State University)
Grade Level(s): Appropriate for Any Age
Room: Grand Ballroom 1
Standards: Human Relationships
Truly engaged partnership with families has the POWER to transform lives (child, family and educator). It’s time to get REAL (an acronym that will share practical steps to authentic engagement)! In this thought provoking session, participants will be encouraged to critique their perspective on Family Engagement, challenge their philosophy, create a new passion, change their practices and then nurture a change in the culture of Family Engagement in their programs. Together, we will learn what it means to get REAL!

HIGHER ORDER OF THINKING AND MUSIC “ED”
Charles Stanton (Classical Music Indy), Pete Brown (Ash Interactive, LLC)
Grade Level(s): K-5
Room: 312
Standards: Human Relationships, Programming and Activities, STEM, Summer Learning
Music “Ed”, our quirky character, and his friends are guides in a new mobile app that encourages higher order thinking skills through interdisciplinary sessions. Designed to appeal to a diverse audience—ethnicity, gender, multiple language, and of various shapes and sizes—the characters are intended to mirror the diverse and multicultural audiences we seek to reach. The sample sessions include: music, art, math, science, geography, and general history. During this feedback session, we will work through modules, explore app technology, and get your opinion and feedback.

KEYS TO QUALITY PARTNERSHIPS WITH SCHOOLS
Ben Johnson (Carmel Clay Parks and Recreation),
Laura Threlkeld (Monroe County Community School Corporation)
Room: Grand Ballroom 3
Standards: Human Relationships, Administration
Join us to discover the key success factors for building and maintaining partnerships with schools. Learn how schools and out-of-school time programs can work together to obtain maximum student success. The greater the partnership, the greater success rate for all involved.

Renee Becker and Nicole Mauntel (IndianaFIRST)
Grade Level(s): K-12
Room: Grand Ballroom 2
Standards: STEM
Reconnect with your inner student by building a mini-LEGO robot! Join the IndianaFIRST team as they demonstrate hands-on learning opportunities with robotics. Learn how FIRST Robotics K-12 curriculum helps youth build skills for their future.
LEARNING YOUR WAY USING MULTIPLE INTELLIGENCES
Gail Hutchison and Maggie Goodman (Chicago Museum of Science and Industry)
Room: Grand Ballroom 4
Standards: Human Relationships, Indoor & Outdoor Activities, Programming and Activities, Summer Learning
Motivate and engage kids no matter their interest areas. Use their natural gifts as a strategy for turning them on to learning. In this session, participants will know and understand how Multiple Intelligences (MI) focuses on strengths while supporting areas for growth. Be ready to put the MI Theory into practice using hands-on STEM activities that you can take back to your afterschool program!

RAINY DAY REMAKE
Elizabeth Darby (Playworks)
Grade Level(s): Appropriate for Any Age
Room: 308
Standards: Human Relationships, Programming and Activities, Safety, Health and Nutrition, Healthy Eating and Physical Activity
Plans rained out? Snow and ice keeping you inside? Don’t let being stuck inside stop your fun. This session will revive your indoor play toolbox with easy, free and engaging activities that will keep kids movin’ and groovin’ all year long. Activities will be shared for all age and ability groups and you will leave with a FREE online resource that instantly connects you to hundreds of games. We will also share top tips for attention-getters, cool down activities and transition strategies that you can start using on Wednesday.

SERVICE LEARNING IS THE KEY
Ryan Steuer (generationOn)
Grade Level(s): Appropriate for Any Age
Room: 302
Standards: Human Relationships
Bring real world service into your program! Learn practical ways to inject service learning into your existing program and how to get youth excited about helping in the community. Hear new service-learning project ideas that will apply to all age levels. Get free resources to help students develop 21st Century skills, empathy, civic mindedness, empowerment and more. Participants will leave this session with project ideas and curriculum that can be implemented immediately!

SPECIAL NEEDS FROM A PARENT’S PERSPECTIVE
Cindy Robinson (About Special Kids)
Grade Level(s): Appropriate for Any Age
Room: 312
Standards: Human Relationships, Programming and Activities
This session provides unique insight into the daily lives, routines, and history of a family living with a child with special needs. Participants will learn and understand the family’s perspective and how to use this insight to address accommodations the child will need to be successful in a variety of settings. This session will help afterschool providers think more intentionally about serving youth with special needs.

SPEAK THE LANGUAGE OF BUSINESSES: FUNDRAISING FROM THE NON-PROFIT SECTOR
Bill Stanczykiewicz (Indiana Youth Institute)
Grade Level(s): Appropriate for Any Age
Room: 205
Standards: Administration
Corporations and businesses donate more than $15 billion to nonprofit organizations each year. What motivates a for-profit company to make a financial donation to a youth-serving nonprofit organization? How does the primary work of an afterschool program address a primary need of businesses and employers? Learn practical answers to those questions in addition to strategies, skills and messages that will help increase your fundraising from corporations and businesses.

ACTIVITIES THAT REACH AND TEACH
Betsy Bontrager and Ritch Hochstetler (uLEAD, Inc.)
Grade Level(s): 6-12
Room: Grand Ballroom 1
Standards: Human Relationships, Programming and Activities
uLEAD opens their student engagement toolkit through an interactive session that will leave you wanting more and remembering what you learned! You will learn new tools for engaging students that are fun, effective, and unforgettable. Empower yourself to understand the brains of those you are working with and offer them a way to fully engage in their own learning. Learning does not have to lack fun, and fun does not have to lack learning.

ADDING ENVIRONMENTAL EDUCATION TO YOUR AFTERSCHOOL PROGRAM
Donna K. Rogler (Indiana DNR Forestry/Project Learning Tree)
Room: 203-204
Standards: Human Relationships, Indoor & Outdoor Activities, Programming and Activities, STEM, Summer Learning
Project Learning Tree’s (PLT) engaging hands-on activities help afterschool educators teach children important concepts about science and the environment, and get kids outside! PLT provides ready to use lessons that use the environment as the context for teaching and incorporate literature, scientific investigations and technology. Participants will have the opportunity to sample Project Learning Tree activities in a fun learning environment.

Jennifer Groh and Sue Bayley (Purdue Women in Engineering)
Grade Level(s): Appropriate for Any Age
Room: 312
Standards: Human Relationships, Programming and Activities, Administration, College and Career Readiness, STEM, Summer Learning
This interactive workshop engages participants in the practice of coaching skills. Coaching is an essential ability that all afterschool providers can possess. Developing coaching skills will help improve leadership, mentorship, and supervisory interaction. They are also applicable for difficult conversations, such as consultations with supervisors and parents. Coaching enhances educational and work environments by asking thought-provoking questions and using purposeful listening. Participants will identify specific ways to adapt and use coaching strategies in their afterschool programs and in everyday life.
KEEPING KIDS ACTIVE DURING THE SUMMER

Meredith Clipp-Rodriquez and Amber Ridings (YMCA of Southern Indiana)

Grade Level(s): K-8
Room: Grand Ballroom 2

Standards: Human Relationships, Indoor & Outdoor Environments, Programming and Activities, Safety, Health and Nutrition, Healthy Eating and Physical Activities

Summer Days can be long...this workshop will help give you educational and fun ideas and activities. This workshop will be VERY interactive, so come ready to play! Participants will learn active, non-active, and learning games (these are the ones where we trick the kids into learning)!

LEVERAGING BOARD LEADERSHIP

Willis Bright (Bright Visions)

S.W.A.G...SO WHY AGRICULTURE

Stephanie DeCamp (Indiana State Fair Commission)

Grade Level(s): Appropriate for Any Age
Room: Grand Ballroom 3

Standards: Programming and Activities, STEM

Agriculture touches every individual every day in numerous ways that most take for granted. Agriculture by its nature is the ultimate STEM discipline to which everyone can relate. Participants in this session will discover how to integrate engaging learner-centered lessons to energize their programs.

Participants will have fun with hands-on activities exploring food, fiber, and fuel; while learning how to deliver with confidence.

TIME MANAGEMENT FOR PROGRAM DIRECTORS

Lauren McLennan (Praxis Strategies & Solutions, Inc.)

Grade Level(s): Appropriate for Any Age
Room: 303

Standards: Programming and Activities, Administration

Phone calls, meetings, interruptions, oh my! The first step toward effective time management is admitting that you could always be better. Learn how to effectively organize your inbox, manage daily interruptions (and still be productive) and successfully plan and execute daily, weekly, and monthly goals. Work smarter and cross off that “to-do” list!

YOGA: AN EFFECTIVE WAY FOR KIDS TO STRENGTHEN THE BODY, QUIET THE MIND, AND DEAL WITH STRESS

Suzanne Bindley (Indy Yoga Movement)

Grade Level(s): K-12
Room: 308

Standards: Human Relationships, Indoor & Outdoor Environments, Safety, Health and Nutrition, Healthy Eating and Physical Activity, Summer Learning

Through yoga, youth learn how to balance the physical, emotional, and thinking parts of themselves. Common truths such as kindness, honesty, moderation, non-hoarding, and humility are interspersed. Personal thoughts of contentedness, acceptance, reflection, and gentleness are also introduced. Be ready to move through a sample yoga class, as doing is the best way to learn!

TOGETHER, WE CAN CONNECT MORE KIDS TO OPPORTUNITY.

We’re honored to be a part of caring communities dedicated to helping more families overcome the digital divide.

The Internet has the potential to level the playing field in American life, especially when it comes to access to education – but only for those who can afford it.

In fact, according to the Pew Research Center, less than half of those with household incomes under $30,000 have broadband at home. That just isn’t right. And it’s intolerable to the 3,000 organizations across the country that are already working with us to close this divide.

Internet Essentials™ offers families with a child eligible to participate in the National School Lunch Program fast, affordable Internet service for $9.95 per month plus tax with no price increases, the option to purchase a computer at enrollment for $149.99 plus tax and access to free digital literacy training.

Join our many dedicated partners who have already used Internet Essentials to make a difference in their communities by registering today on our Partner Portal: InternetEssentials.com/partner

Interested families can call 1-855-8-INTERNET (1-855-846-8376) to see if they are eligible.

INDIANA GIRLS COLLABORATIVE PROJECT

The Indiana Girls Collaborative Project (INGCP) brings together organizations committed to informing and encouraging girls to pursue careers in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM). INGCP is a state collaborative of the National organization, with Indiana State University serving as the convening organization. http://www.ngcproject.org/

STEM ROLE MODELS & MENTORS

The FabFems directory is a national database of women in STEM professions who are inspiring role models for young women. It is accessible to young women, girl-serving STEM programs, and other organizations that are working to increase career awareness and interest in STEM.

MWM, an NGCP partner, is organizing STEM professionals (male and female) to becoming effective mentors in partnership with national organizations reaching millions of girls. MWM is connecting participating corporations to non-profit partners and educational institutions in need of STEM mentors and role models.

ACTIVITIES & RESOURCES

• Online PROGRAM DIRECTORY helps organizations and individuals network, share resources, and collaborate on STEM-related projects.

• Collaboratives host a variety of EVENTS for STEM practitioners that offer professional develop and opportunities for collaboration.

• NGCP website provides a CLEARINGHOUSE of resources and links that advance STEM education for girls.

• Local Collaboratives award MINI-GRANTS to girl-serving, STEM-focused projects to support collaboration, address gaps and overlaps in service, and reach underrepresented populations.
