

2020 Indiana Summit on Out-of-School Learning: Request of Presenter Rubric

Category	4 Excellent	3 Satisfactory	2 Fair	1 Poor
Session Overview: Clarity, Purpose and Organization of Proposal	The topic is cutting-edge, immediately relevant, or highly significant to the field. It is definitely a session worth attending. The session objective and outcomes are clear. It contains specifics that make the reader want to learn more. The session is clearly organized and details activities and materials to be used.	The topic may not be current or groundbreaking, but it is relevant to the field and audience. It may be a session worth attending. The session objective and outcomes are clear and descriptive The session is organized and includes activities and materials to be used.	The topic is not current or important to the audience. It is probably not a session worth attending. The session objective and outcomes are too general or broad to be achievable, or too narrow to be useful. The session is unclear and provides little information about activities/materials.	The topic is not current, it lacks importance or is not appropriate to the field and/or audience. It is not a session worth attending. The session objective or participant outcomes are not stated or implied, or are not clear. The session is unclear and does not specify activities, materials to be used.
Relevance to the Afterschool Standards and Best Practices in the Field of Afterschool	The session provides insightful critical perspectives on afterschool. The session clearly imagines possibilities for afterschool and clearly connects to the IN Afterschool Standards.	The session provides some perspectives on the afterschool field. The session loosely provides best practices for afterschool and loosely connects to the IN Afterschool Standards.	The session provides little or no new perspectives for the afterschool field. The session does not consider best practices and tries to connect to the IN Afterschool Standard but fails at the attempt.	The session does not provide any new perspectives for the afterschool field. The session does not consider best practices and does not connect to the IN Afterschool Standards.
Motivated by Theory, Practice and/or Research	The session refers specifically to relevant theory, practice or research in the afterschool environment. It is thorough and directly relates to presentation content. The session mentions specific instructional practices and applications that are relevant to the context, innovative and immediately useful.	The session refers to some extent to theory, practice and/or research in the afterschool environment. It is relevant to the presentation content. The session mentions instructional practices and/or applications in the field that are relevant to the context, but may not be innovative or immediately useful.	The session refers to theory, practice or research in the afterschool environment, but it is not specific or doesn't relate to the content of the presentation. The session mentions instructional practices or applications that are irrelevant and/or over-used.	The session is unclear how it is connected to theory, practice or research in the afterschool environment. The session makes little or no mention of instructional practices or application.
Interesting, Innovative and Engaging	The session activities are varied, creative and highly interactive. Multiple learning styles are addressed. The topic and content is fun and interesting-a new twist is provided. Participants will leave with many inspiring new ideas or perspectives for their practice-i.e.: concrete strategies, resource lists, or ideas for projects/next steps.	The session activities are varied and interactive. Multiple learning styles are somewhat addressed. The topic and content seems interesting and engaging. Participants will leave with some inspiring new ideas or perspectives for their practice-i.e.: concrete strategies, resource lists, or ideas for projects/next steps.	The session activities lack variation, creativity and are minimally interactive. Multiple learning styles are minimally addressed The topic is mildly interesting and the content is commonplace. Participants will leave with few new ideas or perspectives for their practice.	The session is not interactive and is mainly a lecture with little or no activities. Multiple learning styles are not addressed. The topic and content are not interesting or engaging. Participants will leave with little or no new ideas or perspectives for their practice.